Section I:

Introduction and Overview

A. How to Use This Handbook

City of Phoenix board, commission, committee, and task force members (collectively referred to as “board members” throughout this handbook) must comply with City of Phoenix ethics policies and laws. Although this handbook is intended as a comprehensive resource, existing laws and policies may change and new laws may be adopted that are not reflected in this handbook. This handbook does not constitute legal advice. Instead, it serves as general guidance to help individual board members comply with ethics laws and policies. Specific legal consequences hinge on how the law or policy applies to circumstances. Board members are encouraged to seek guidance to help comply with applicable ethics policies and laws. For additional general information and guidance, board members should contact their board or commission liaison or refer to the ethics hotline.

B. Why Ethics Matter

Public trust in the City is built on the conduct of elected officials, employees, board members, and volunteers. Only when residents have confidence that their City elected officials, employees, board members, and volunteers will act fairly and honestly, can democratic government function properly. Therefore, it is imperative that all in public service perform their duties with the highest standards of personal integrity, fairness, and honesty, and never use their City position for improper personal gain.

C. Sources and Enforcement of City of Phoenix Ethics Policies and Laws

Although City ethics policies and laws are derived from several sources and standards, three significant policies and laws establish City ethics standards:

1. The City of Phoenix Ethics Policy, Phoenix City Code Section 2-52;
2. The City of Phoenix Gift Policy, also found in Phoenix City Code Section 2-52; and
3. Arizona law for conflicts of interest as adopted by Phoenix City Charter Chapter XI and found in Arizona Revised Statutes Title 38, Chapter 3, Article 8.

Violations of these ethics policies and laws by elected officials and board members are enforced through the City of Phoenix Ethics Commission. Violations of these ethics policies and laws by employees and volunteers are enforced through the City Manager. Although each of these policies and laws are generally uniform as applied to all in public service, some differences exist, and therefore, elected officials, employees, board members, and volunteers should look to guidance that applies to their specific public duty and role.

Section II: Applicable Ethics Policies and Laws

A. Definitions for City of Phoenix Ethics and Gift Policies

The following definitions apply to this Section. The plural of the word or phrase includes the singular, and the singular includes the plural.

1. “Board Member” means a member, or the person’s relative or partner, of a City of Phoenix board, committee, commission, or task force.
2. “City Business” means an activity or enterprise for gain, benefit, advantage, or livelihood with a public entity, a research organization, a regulatory body, a business association, or a professional association, whose primary purpose relates to research, rulemaking, development, best practices, or regulations that affect or relate to the City of Phoenix.
3. “Community Event” means an event, activity, or function located in Arizona and sponsored by the City of Phoenix, a non-profit organization, a professional association, a business association, a charitable organization, a cultural/arts organization, or a community organization.
4. “Compensation” means money, a tangible thing of value, or a financial benefit.
5. “Elected Official” means a person, or the person’s relative or partner, elected or appointed as mayor or as council member of the City of Phoenix.
6. “Employee” means a person, or the person’s relative or partner, who is not an elected official, board member, volunteer, or City of Phoenix Municipal Court Judge, and who is employed full-time or part-time by the City of Phoenix.
7. “Gift” means direct or indirect compensation, other than as provided by law, for services, duties, or responsibilities rendered or to be rendered by a person in their capacity as an elected official, employee, board member, or volunteer.

Gift does not mean:

- a. Compensation received by an elected official, board member, or volunteer as part of the person’s employment outside of the City of Phoenix or as part of the person’s service as a member of a board of directors for a corporation or other elective office, and which compensation is unrelated to the person’s position or office as an elected official, board member, or volunteer; or
- b. A political campaign contribution as permitted by law; or
- c. Compensation received by an elected official, employee, board member, or volunteer from the person’s relative or partner; or
- d. Compensation in the form of a personalized plaque or similar personalized award received by an elected official, employee, board member, or volunteer for the person’s service to the City of Phoenix consistent with the duties and responsibilities of the person’s position or office; or
- e. Compensation in the form of admission, food, beverages, transportation, or accommodations received by an elected official or employee in the capacity as a City of Phoenix representative and related to City business; or
- f. Compensation associated with a relative’s or partner’s elective office; or
- g. Compensation in the form of admission, food, or beverages received by an elected official, employee, board member, or volunteer to attend a community event.

8. “Partner” means a person in a domestic partnership as defined in Phoenix City Code Sec. 18-401.
9. “Relative” means the spouse, child, grandchild, parent, grandparent, brother or sister of the whole or half blood and their spouse, and the parent, brother, sister, or child of a spouse as defined in Phoenix City Code Section 2-52(A).
10. “Special occasion” means an engagement or wedding involving a relative, partner, or relative of a partner, the birth or adoption of a child, or the death of a relative, partner, or relative of a partner.
11. “Volunteer” means a person, or the person’s relative or partner, other than a board member who provides their services to the City of phoenix without any express or implied promise of compensation, and serves as a hearing officer, intern, extern, contractor, vendor, or otherwise serves in the administrative offices of an elected official, the City Manager, or a City of Phoenix department or function head. A block watch captain is not a volunteer for purposes of the gift policy.

B. City of Phoenix Ethics Policy

It is the policy of the City of Phoenix to uphold, promote, and demand the highest standards of ethics from all of its elected officials, employees, board members, and volunteers. Accordingly, all City of Phoenix elected officials, employees, board members, and volunteers must maintain the utmost standards of personal integrity, truthfulness, honesty, and fairness in carrying out their public duties, avoid any improprieties in their roles as public servants, and never use their City position or power for improper personal gain.

Comment: The proper operation of municipal government requires that all board members remain independent, impartial, and responsible only to the public. Board members hold office for the public’s benefit, and must uphold the United States and Arizona Constitutions, and the laws of the State of Arizona and the City of Phoenix. In official acts, board members are bound to observe the highest standards of integrity, and discharge faithfully the duties of their office or position, regardless of personal considerations, recognizing that the public interest must be their primary concern. Democratic government can function properly only when the citizenry has confidence in how its government is run.

C. City of Phoenix Gift Policy

A gift in any amount received by a board member is prohibited if the gift creates the appearance of undue influence, or if the gift creates a conflict of interest under Phoenix City Charter Chapter XI, Section 1 (Title 38, Chapter 3, Article 8, Arizona Revised Statutes).

A gift received by a board member, regardless of value, is permissible if the gift is not otherwise prohibited by law. Board members are not required to disclose gifts unless they are also employees.

Comment: Board members should not accept any gifts (monetary or otherwise, such as a service, loan, thing or promise), gratuities, or favors from anyone other than the City for the performance of acts within the regular course of official duties. Board members should refuse any gifts or favors that reasonably may be interpreted to be offered to influence a municipal decision. Compensation for performing public duty as a board member is generally limited to the personal satisfaction that board members may derive from doing a good job. While board members are the first to decide whether to accept any gift, board members must recognize that others will decide if there is any appearance of undue influence for the board member's acceptance of the gifts. Finally, board members should be wary of accepting any gifts or benefits from individuals doing business with the City or whose financial interests are affected by City action.

Special Occasion Waiver. Board members may seek a waiver from the Ethics Commission to accept a gift that recognizes the special occasions listed in Section II(A)(10) but may otherwise violate the City's ethics or gift policies. If the special occasion gift waiver is approved by the Ethics Commission, the board member must file the waiver form with the City Clerk no later than 30 days after the close of the quarter in which the waiver is granted.

Comment: Board members are not required to obtain a waiver to accept normal and customary gifts such as flowers, food, or donations to charitable organizations made by others that recognize the special occasions listed in Section II(A)(10).

1. Gift Examples.

Because of the size and complexity of the City, it is impossible to list every circumstance that may occur to determine if a gift is permissible. Generally, several factors apply to determine if a gift creates the appearance of undue influence:

- the source of the gift;
- the setting in which the gift is received; and
- the motive for the gift.

For example, a gift from a source such as a vendor that does business, has contracts, or is regulated by the City is of greater concern than a gift from an entity with little or no relationship to the City.

The setting in which a gift is received may also affect the appearance of undue influence. For example, a board member's acceptance of a one-on-one dinner with a City vendor who has business before the Board is perceived differently than the board member's acceptance of a dinner at no cost as part of a conference presented by the vendor in a group setting.

Finally, the motive for a gift is an important consideration. Motive can be determined by circumstances such as custom or prior established personal relationships. For example, a gift received by a board member at an occasion, such as a wedding involving a friend, when such gifts are customary, is less likely to create the appearance of undue influence.

The following examples apply to board members, their relatives, and their partners.

a. Holiday Gifts from Persons with Business before the Board

Board members should not accept a gift from a contractor, consultant, vendor, person, or entity regulated by the City or who has or will soon have business before the board. Examples of such gifts include cookies, bouquets, candy, alcohol, money (in any form), gift certificates, or gift cards. A greeting card is not a gift and may be kept by a board member who receives it. Gifts such as cookies, snacks, or candy may be accepted by a board member from a person or entity who does not currently have or will not soon have any business before the board if the gift is made available to all members to share.

b. Tickets or Entrance to Entertainment, Sports/Athletic, or Cultural Events from Persons with Business before the Board

Board members should not accept or keep any other entertainment, sports/athletic, or cultural event tickets under any circumstances from a person who has or soon will have business before the board. Additionally, board members may not accept tickets to entertainment, sports/athletic, or cultural events despite a charitable donation made by the board member for the value of the tickets.

c. Meals and Refreshments

Board members should avoid accepting offers of food or refreshment where it creates the appearance of undue influence or if it creates a conflict of interest. For example, a board member should not accept the gift of a one-on-one meal with a consultant who has pending business before the board, or reasonably will soon have business before the board.

Board members may, however, accept meals or refreshments at an event to celebrate the completion of a project or where the meals and refreshments are generally available to all persons attending the event.

d. Admission, Food, Beverages to Attend Community Events; Incidental Items

Board members may attend and consume food and beverages offered at community events as part of their responsibilities and duties. Board members are not required to disclose the amount for admission, food, and beverages offered at community events. Board members may also accept incidental items received at community events such as a coffee mug, t-shirt, or pen, when the reasonable estimated fair market value is $50 or less.

e. City-sponsored Events

Board members may attend and consume food and beverages offered at City-sponsored events such as the annual Martin Luther King Jr. breakfast and the Mayor's State of the City speech.

f. Board Members' Participation in Conferences, Events, or Activities Involving City Business; Incidental Items

Board members may accept admission, food, beverages, transportation, and accommodations as a guest of another person or organization when the board member serves as a City representative at a conference, event, or activity related to City business. These amounts do not require disclosure. Board members may accept incidental items such as coffee mugs, t-shirts, or pens, whose reasonable estimated fair market value is $50 or less.

g. Attending a Business Conference as a Board Member While Also a City Employee

Employees who attend conferences for City business because they are a member of a City-affiliated board (e.g., COPERS, PEHP/DCP) must comply with the rules for gifts and disclosures that apply to both employees and board members.

D. Conflicts of Interest1. Conflicts of Interest.

The City has adopted Arizona's conflict of interest laws under Phoenix City Charter, Chapter XI, Section 1. The full text of these statutes appears in Appendix A.

Comment: Board members must be constantly on guard against conflicts of interest. In short, board members should not participate in a decision or contract that may result in a direct or indirect monetary benefit to the board member or the board member's relative or partner.

2. Declaring a Conflict of Interest

If a board member determines the member has a conflict of interest on a matter before the board, the member should work with the board's liaison and the board chairperson to file a conflict form with the City Clerk, declare the conflict on the record at the board meeting, and refrain from voting or otherwise participating in the matter. See, Arizona Revised Statutes, Section 38-503(A) (reprinted at Appendix A).

3. Examples–Conflict of Interest

The following examples help give board members an idea how Arizona’s conflict of interest laws apply. Each situation will be decided on the unique facts and circumstances involved. The goal of these examples—and indeed this entire handbook—is to help develop greater sensitivity to ethical considerations. If a board member is in doubt of what should be done, opt not to participate. All examples assume the matter will come before the board for consideration and apply to the board member’s relative or partner as well as the board member.

a. Owns Property in Close Proximity

The board member owns property in close proximity to property subject to board’s approval of a zoning or license application that may affect the value of the board member’s property.

b. Worked Previously for Firm

The board member has done work in the past for a firm that seeks a City contract and the board member anticipates doing further work for the firm in the future. A potential conflict exists regardless of whether the work involves the matter that is the subject of the contract. (However, mere past association does not of itself constitute a conflict if the business relationship is not a continuing one.)

c. Corporate Officer of Competitor

The board member is an officer of a corporation that operates a chain of stores. An application by a competitor seeks zoning approval for a store within the service area of one of the stores owned by the board member’s corporation.

d. Developer

The board member is a developer who files an application for approval of a project. Not only must the board member declare a conflict and disqualify oneself from consideration of the application, the board member also may not participate in any manner.

e. Realtor Listing Agreement

The board member is a realtor who has had discussions concerning a listing agreement with an owner of a property that is the subject of a zoning application. If the board member wishes to pursue the agreement, the board member should declare the conflict and refrain from considering the application. If the board member participated in consideration of the matter, the board member should not later enter the listing agreement.

f. Owner of Regulated Business

A proposed amendment to the City Code seeks to regulate a specific type of business activity. The board member has an exclusive or specific right to conduct the activity in the City.

g. Property Uniquely Affected by Land Use Plan

The board member has an interest in property that will be uniquely affected by a proposed land use plan, and the adoption of the plan may affect the value of the property (e.g., the plan confers special benefits on the property that are not applied to other similarly situated properties).

h. Contract of Close Relative

The close relative of a board member is in business with a person whose application or contract is being considered by the board.

i. Source of More Than 5% Income

The board member receives more than 5% of the member’s total annual income from a corporation that has an application or a contract pending before the board.

- j. Seeks a Contract with the City
Board member is prohibited from contracting with the City unless the contract is awarded through competitive bidding. The board member must declare the conflict and refrain from participating in the decision to award the contract.
- k. Employee of Organization Receiving Funds
The board member is a paid employee of an organization that receives funds appropriated by the board, including federal and State funds administered by the City.

4. Examples—No Conflict of Interest Exists

The following are illustrative examples of situations that do not constitute violations of the conflict of interest laws. Again, all examples assume that the board will review the matter in question and apply to a relative or partner as well as the board member.

- a. Trade Association Member
The board member is a member of a trade association that has applied for an amendment to the City Code presented to the board for decision.
- b. Owns Property Within Area of Land Use Plan
The board member owns a property in an area that is part of a proposed land-use plan presented to the board for decision (unless that plan would uniquely affect the board member's property).
- c. Nonsalaried Corporate Officer
The board member is the nonsalaried officer of a nonprofit corporation that has an application presented to the board for decision.
- d. Tenant of Property Owner
The board member is a tenant of a property owner who seeks a City contract (unless the contract affects the monetary or property interests of the board member).

- e. Attorney for Property Owner
The board member is the attorney for a contracting party (if the board member's legal representation does not include the contract).
- f. Owns Less Than 3% Corporation's Shares
The board member owns less than 3% of the shares of a corporation that has an application under consideration by the board. The board member does not have a conflict if the total annual income from dividends, including the value of stock dividends from the corporation, does not exceed 5% of the total annual income of the board member and any other payments made to the member by the corporation do not exceed 5% of the member's total annual income.
- g. Advocate for or Against Matter
The board member is an advocate for or against a matter before the board and has publicly stated the member will or will not support the matter (unless the matter will affect the monetary or property interest of the board member).

5. Contracts with the City

Arizona law prohibits any board member who has "a substantial interest in any contract, sale, purchase, or service to such public agency" from participating in any way with the transaction. See Arizona Revised Statutes Section 38-503(A) (reprinted in Appendix A). Also, Arizona law flatly prohibits anyone who officially represents the City from providing certain goods and services to the City without competitive bidding. See Arizona Revised Statutes, Section 38-503(C). Two other statutes prohibit the personal involvement of municipal and public officers in housing or redevelopment projects. See Arizona Revised Statutes Sections 36-1406 and 36-1477.

Comment: As with other conflicts of interest, any board member under these circumstances must (i) make known the substantial interest involved and (ii) refrain from voting on or otherwise participating in the transaction or the making of the contract or sale. Also, a board member cannot provide certain goods and services to the City—even if the member does not participate in the process—unless a competitive bidding process is used. Other prohibitions may apply if federal funds are involved.

6. Disclosure of Confidential Information

Arizona law provides that during a person's employment or service with the City and for two years after, no board member may disclose or use confidential information without appropriate authorization. See Arizona Revised Statutes, Section 38-504(B) (reprinted in Appendix A).

Comment: Board members often have access to important non-public information regarding City property, operations, policies, and affairs. This information may concern real estate transactions, expansion of public facilities, or other City projects. The leak of this inside information may benefit a few at the expense of a possible monetary loss to the City and a deterioration of public confidence. If a board member is aware of confidential information, the member should not disclose the confidential information to anyone outside the City and should disclose it to other public employees only if appropriate.

7. Employment

a. Incompatible Employment

Board members may be otherwise employed so long as it does not interfere with their service commitments to the City.

Comment: Board members should refrain from accepting employment or rendering service for private interests when the employment or service is incompatible with the proper discharge of board members' official duties, may impair their independent judgment, or may impair the performance of their duties.

b. Representing Private Interests before City Agencies

Board members may be otherwise employed after leaving office if the employment does not interfere with any on-going duties to the City (for example, disclosure of confidential information).

Comment: For 12 months following a board member's service with the City, Arizona law prohibits board members from representing another person for compensation before a public agency concerning any matter in which the board member was directly concerned and personally participated in by a substantial and material exercise of administrative or legislative discretion. See Arizona Revised Statutes, Section 38-504(A) (reprinted in Appendix A).

c. Employment of Relatives

Arizona law prohibits a board member's involvement in the appointment, hire, or supervision of a relative. See Arizona Revised Statutes, Section 38-481 (reprinted in Appendix A).

Comment: The hire and supervision of a relative is a special type of a conflict of interest that must be avoided.

d. Discussion of Future Employment

A board member should disclose possible future employment to the board's liaison if the member has been offered, or is discussing future employment, with a person, firm, or any other business entity that conducts business with the City.

Comment: Board members should be aware that they are vulnerable to offers of future employment in exchange for favors or information obtained through their positions.

Additionally, those who do business with the City, either as a contractor or subcontractor, must not discriminate against any worker, employee, or applicant, or any member of the public, because of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, or any other category covered by law. A contractor or subcontractor with more than 35 employees, is also prohibited from discriminating against any worker, employee, or applicant, or any member of the public because of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression.

E. Discrimination

Phoenix City Charter Chapter XI, Section 2 provides: “No person shall be appointed to, removed from or in any way favored or discriminated against with respect to any City position because of race, color, ancestry, national origin, sex, political or religious opinions or affiliations.”

Comment: Public decisions must be fair and impartial. The City strives to serve the public and workforce in a productive manner, free from intimidation or hostility. The equality of opportunity to enter public service, besides being the object of various federal, state, and local laws, is a central factor to achieve efficient public service. Every consideration, treatment, advantage, or favor should be equally available to all residents and constituents. It is our shared responsibility to help create an environment where all members, employees, and residents are respected and valued. As such, the City prohibits persons and organizations from refusing to hire or promote any person or discriminate against any person in compensation, conditions, or privileges of employment based on their race, color, ancestry, national origin, sex, religion, age, disability, sexual orientation, or gender identity or expression, or any other category covered by law (“protected characteristics”). Persons and organizations are therefore prohibited from denying service(s) to any persons based on their protected characteristics.

Section III: Additional Applicable Laws and Policies

A. Political Activity

The Phoenix City Charter Chapter XXV, Section 11 prohibits elected officials from soliciting or receiving, directly or indirectly, campaign contributions for City elective office from or through employees. In addition, Phoenix City Code Section 12-1503 prohibits elected officials from using any campaign funds for one's personal use (reprinted in Appendix B).

Comment: The City Attorney, in Opinion No. 90-012, has determined the provisions of Phoenix City Charter Chapter XXV, Section 11 do not apply to board members, and therefore, board members may participate in political campaigns for City elective office.

B. Board Member Attendance Policy

If a board member fails to attend three consecutive regular meetings or more than fifty percent of all meetings of a board during a calendar year (January 1 through December 31), the City Council may declare the seat vacant and appoint a replacement. See Phoenix City Code, Chapter 2, Article I, Section 2-14.

Comment: Board members are expected to attend all regularly scheduled meetings and should make every effort to do so. The City Council appoints board members for their experience, background, and perspective in a particular policy area, and wants the benefit of the members' consideration and judgment. The board, commission, committee, or task force cannot conduct any business unless a quorum is present. Accordingly, if a board member must miss a meeting because of business, vacation, or illness, the member should advise the board, commission, committee, or task force chairman in advance of the meeting.

C. Removal of Board Member

Except for an Ethics Commission member, a board member may be removed from office with or without cause prior to the expiration of the member's term by a majority vote of the Council. An Ethics Commission member may be removed from office with or without cause prior to the expiration of the member's term by an affirmative vote of seven Council members.

D. City of Phoenix Lobbyist Ordinance

1. Lobbyist Ordinance Overview

Two definitions are important to understand the lobbyist ordinance: lobbying and lobbyist. Lobbying means communication by a lobbyist with any City official to influence official action. Lobbyist means any person who is compensated to lobby for a person other than himself. See Phoenix City Code Section 2-1000. Generally, the lobbyist ordinance requires a lobbyist to register with the City of Phoenix when lobbying a City official, which includes board members. The ordinance includes eight specific exemptions from the registration requirements. See Phoenix City Code, Section 2-1002. Registration as a lobbyist triggers quarterly disclosure requirements for expenditures made by the lobbyist related to a City official, including a board member. A lobbyist's contributions to an elected official's campaign or when a lobbyist solicits a contribution that results in an actual contribution to the campaign must also be disclosed quarterly. There is no requirement that lobbyists must document their meetings with individuals such as a board member, a lobbyist registration is sufficient.

2. Practical Implications to Board Member

It is not the board member's responsibility to determine a person's status as a lobbyist, in fact, a board member should not advise anyone whether the person should or should not register. Because all obligations rest solely on the lobbyist the person should decide to register for themselves. However, providing the information about the City Clerk's website is a quick and efficient way to help an individual make this determination.

3. Disclosure Requirement

When a lobbyist communicates with a board member in the lobbyist's capacity as a lobbyist, the lobbyist must disclose this capacity to the board member. Most lobbyists who lobby at the State level are familiar with this requirement because disclosure is also required at the State level.

4. Board Member's Reporting Obligation

All obligations imposed by the Lobbyist ordinance rest solely on the lobbyist. The ordinance does not impose any obligations on board members. If board members wish to confirm if a person or entity is registered to lobby, this information is easily accessible on the City Clerk's website, which lists registered lobbyists and entities. If a board member wishes to report a person who may be in violation of the ordinance, the board member should contact the City Clerk's office.

5. Violation

A lobbyist has five days to register after initially lobbying a City official. If the lobbyist fails to register within this period, the City will issue a letter that requests the lobbyist cure the violation within 15 days. If the violation is cured within the 15 days, no further action is taken. However, if the violation remains uncured on the 15th day by 5 p.m., the information is forwarded to the appropriate authority for possible enforcement.

E. Public Access: Open Meetings and Public Records

Numerous Arizona and City laws require the meetings of public bodies to be open to the public and public records must be available for inspection. See Open Meetings Laws (Arizona Revised Statutes, Sections 38-431 through 431.09 and City Charter, Chapter IV, Section 5) and Public Records Laws (Arizona Revised Statutes, Sections 39-121 through 121.03 and City Charter, Chapter IV, Section 21). (Reprinted in Appendix B).

Comment: Arizona statutes require that meetings of public bodies be conducted openly. Also, Arizona law allows broad access to public records. Open government gives the public confidence that public affairs are performed properly. Brochures are available at phoenix.gov/cityclerk.

F. Use of City Equipment, Facilities, or Personnel for Private Gain

Board members should not use City facilities, equipment, personnel, or supplies for private purposes, except to the extent the facilities, equipment, personnel, or supplies are lawfully available to the public.

Comment: Public respect for government is weakened when City-owned facilities and equipment are used by board members for improper personal gain. City office supplies, work materials, vehicles and equipment are to be used only for City work. Taking City goods for private use is not a "fringe benefit"; it is stealing. See Arizona Revised Statutes Section 13-1802. Also, it is improper (and maybe unlawful) for supervisors to use subordinates for their personal benefit. Finally, a board member should avoid waste of public supplies and equipment.

G. Software Management

A board member should not make, use, accept, or install illegal copies of computer software, documentation, or templates.

Examples of software copyright violations are:

- (i) Installing a single-user copy of a software program on several computers;
- (ii) Allowing six or more members to concurrently use a five-user licensed LAN software package;
- (iii) Borrowing a copy of a single-user licensed program without that person removing it from their computer for the duration of the loan;
- (iv) Loaning a person a copy of a single-user licensed software program as an evaluation copy without removing it from the member's computer for the duration of the evaluation; and
- (v) Making more backup copies of the software than allowed in the license agreement. The City Auditor Department conducts periodic audits to insure compliance with City policies on software.

H. Electronic Mail

Electronic mail systems, including the internet, should be used only for City business unless otherwise authorized. All electronic mail is considered official City business and must be retained for a minimum of 90 days and in many cases longer, in accordance with the State's record retention schedule. In general, electronic mail communications are public records and subject to disclosure under the Arizona Public Records Act, Arizona Revised Statutes, Sections 39-101 and following.

Comment: The City will not read electronic message content as a routine matter, but reserves the right to do so without prior notification. The City may electronically scan email messages for the presence of specific content such as viruses or passwords and to maintain system integrity.

I. Federal Transit Administration Standards of Conduct

A board member must not participate in the selection, award, or administration of a contract supported by Federal Transit Administration funds if the member's participation involves a real or apparent conflict of interest. A conflict of interest arises when any of the following persons has a financial or other interest in the firm selected for award:

- (i) A board member;
- (ii) Any member of the board member's immediate family;
- (iii) Board member's partner; or
- (iv) An organization that employs, or is about to employ, any of the above.

J. Procurement Ethics

Board members must not represent any person or business for compensation related to any part of a City procurement, including any resulting contract, during the board member's term of office or where the board member played a material and significant role in the development of the solicitation, any other part of the procurement, or the contract award. Phoenix City Code Section 43-34.

Beginning on the date a solicitation is published and continuing until the contract is awarded or the solicitation is canceled, potential or actual proposers (including their representatives) may only discuss the solicitation with board members in a public meeting posted under Arizona law. Phoenix City Code Section 43-36.

Section IV: Ethics Commission

A. City of Phoenix Ethics Commission

The Phoenix City Code establishes the Ethics Commission (Section 2-53). The Ethics Commission consists of five members who each serve a term of five years unless otherwise specified. Two commission members must be registered members of the Democratic Party, two commission members must be registered members of the Republican Party, and one commission member must be registered with no party affiliation. All members must be Phoenix residents and must not be elected officials, precinct committee persons of a political party, or Phoenix employees. A member may not serve more than one full term. One Democratic member, one Republican member, and the unaffiliated member will each serve a full initial term. One Democratic member and one Republican member will each serve a three-year initial term. Each commission vacancy must be filled by a candidate recommended by the Judicial Selection Advisory Board and approved by the City Council.

B. Ethics Commission Rules and Procedures

The City Manager will prepare initial rules and procedures for the commission's investigation and enforcement of an ethics or gift violation. All violations must be approved by an affirmative vote of four Ethics Commission members and an affirmative vote of seven Council members. These rules and procedures must address the process and procedures for the Ethics Commission to initiate proceedings, conduct the initial evaluation and investigation, proceed with a formal hearing after investigation by the Ethics Commission, if necessary, and recommend action, if necessary, to Council related to an alleged ethics or gift violation. By an affirmative vote of four members, the Ethics Commission may refer changes to the initial Ethics Commission rules and procedures to the City Manager for review and recommendation to City Council. Any changes to the initial Ethics Commission rules and procedures must be approved by an affirmative vote of seven City Council members.

C. Filing of Inquiry

Any person who is a Phoenix resident or who is directly aggrieved by an act or the failure to act of an elected official or board member may file with the City Clerk a written inquiry containing specific allegations of violations of the City's ethics or gift policy by any elected official or board member.

D. Consideration of Inquiry

Within five days of receiving the inquiry, the City Clerk will forward the inquiry to the Ethics Commission and the inquiry will be placed on the agenda of the commission's next available meeting.

E. Initial Evaluation by Commission

Each inquiry received by the commission will be initially evaluated by the commission to determine by an affirmative vote of four members if the allegations in the inquiry:

1. Are within the commission's jurisdiction and are facially sufficient in whole or in part to warrant additional evaluation or investigation of the allegations in the inquiry; or
2. Are outside of the commission's jurisdiction or facially insufficient to warrant investigation, and therefore,

dismiss the inquiry. The commission's dismissal of the inquiry is not subject to review; or

3. May involve a crime, in which case the commission must refer the inquiry to the proper authority for investigation and prosecution. If the commission refers the inquiry to another authority for criminal investigation or prosecution, the commission must stay all action related to the inquiry until the criminal investigation and any related proceedings are resolved; or
4. Are not well grounded in law or fact and are interposed for an improper purpose, such as to harass or cause unnecessary delay or expense to the elected official or board member. The commission may recommend that the City Council impose a civil sanction in the maximum amount of $500 against the person or entity for each frivolous inquiry. If the commission fails to make a determination by unanimous or the affirmative vote as required in subsections (1) through (4), the inquiry is deemed closed.

F. Ethics Commission Authority

Upon a determination that an inquiry warrants additional evaluation or investigation, the Ethics Commission is authorized to investigate, take testimony, and engage in any other action to the extent permitted by law to oversee the investigation and enforcement of the ethics or gift policy related to an elected official or board member. The commission may appoint an independent investigator as may be necessary to assist the Ethics Commission in carrying out its purpose and responsibilities. In addition, the Ethics Commission may issue advisory opinions regarding ethics and gift policy issues upon request by an elected official or board member, and make recommendations to the City Council.

G. Inquiry Report

After the conclusion of any hearing or fact finding related to an inquiry alleging a violation of the City's ethics or gift policy by an elected official or board member, the investigator will prepare a written report with findings of fact and recommendations. The report will be provided to the Ethics Commission for such action as the Ethics Commission deems appropriate. The report will not be available for public inspection under the Arizona Public Records Act until after final action by the Ethics Commission.

H. Commission Review

The Ethics Commission may review and discuss the inquiry and the report in executive session as permitted by law. In public session, by the affirmative vote of four members the Ethics Commission may recommend to the full Council to sustain the alleged violations in whole or in part, to impose sanctions, if any, permitted by this section, or to dismiss the inquiry. If there are less than four votes to make a recommendation to the full City Council or to dismiss the inquiry, then the inquiry is deemed closed.

I. Consideration of Recommendation

A recommendation from the Ethics Commission related to an inquiry will be placed on the agenda of the next available meeting of the full City Council. By the affirmative vote of seven members the City Council may accept the Ethics Commission recommendation in whole or in part, impose the same or different sanctions, if any, as permitted by this section, or dismiss the inquiry. If there are less than seven votes to accept the Ethics Commission's recommendation in whole or in part, or to dismiss the inquiry, the inquiry is deemed closed.

J. Sanctions

By an affirmative vote of seven members, the City Council may impose any of the following actions or civil sanctions for a violation of the ethics or gift policies by an elected official or board member: censure, a maximum civil sanction in the amount of $500 for each violation, or removal from office if the violation relates to a board member. Phoenix City Code Section 1-5 does not apply to action under this subsection. The penalties and remedies provided in Title 38, Chapter 3, Article 8, Arizona Revised Statutes, may apply and may be enforced as provided by law.

K. Action for Frivolous Allegations

Upon a finding and recommendation by an affirmative vote of four members of the Ethics Commission and by an affirmative vote of seven members of the City Council, the City Council may direct the City Manager through the City Attorney to file a complaint in municipal court against a person, or other entity recognized by law, for the filing of allegations of ethics or gift violations that are not well grounded in law or fact and are interposed for an improper purpose, such as to harass or cause unnecessary delay or expense to the elected official or board member. A person found liable for violating this section by a preponderance of the evidence may be subject to a maximum civil sanction in the amount of $500 for each violation and may be ordered to pay the reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred by the elected official or board member to respond to and defend against the improper allegations.

L. Removal of Board Member

Compliance with this section is not required for the City Council to act under Phoenix City Code Section 2-51.

Section V: Additional Procedures

A. How to Declare a Possible Conflict of Interest

If a board member believes a conflict of interest (or even a possible conflict) exists, the board member should make known this fact as soon as the possible conflict comes to the board member's attention. For example, as soon as a board member realizes a conflict exists on a given matter, the board member should fully disclose the conflicting interest on the record for the minutes. Once the possible conflict is made known, the board member should not participate in any manner (by discussing, questioning, or voting) in that matter. When the minutes of the meeting are available, the staff will send a copy to the City Clerk's Office with a note explaining that a conflict of interest was declared. If a board member is unsure whether a particular situation is considered a conflict of interest, the safest course of action is simply to declare that a conflict may exist that prevents the board member from participating in the matter. This course of action is better than the risk of an inadvertent violation of the law. Indeed, if there is a consistent theme to this handbook, it would be: "If in doubt, don't."

B. Where to Report Others' Improper Conduct

Board members have a duty to prevent any improper acts or failure to act in government. To report suspected wrongdoing, including but not limited to illegal or unethical behavior, a board member may call the Integrity Line at (602) 261-8999 or 534-5500 (TTY). Unethical behavior includes, but is not limited to, contract fraud, vendor kickbacks, loss or waste of City money or property, falsified documents, and specific danger to public health or safety.

Integrity Line callers are encouraged to provide a contact telephone number to permit investigators to gather additional information as the complaint is reviewed. Callers are encouraged to leave detailed information when contacting the Integrity Line to better assist the Committee with its review. The Committee requests the following information to assist the Committee with its review: (i) Circumstances of the incident and details of how fraud/inappropriate action took place; (ii) Names of all persons involved, including City division and department; (iii) Date(s), time(s) and location(s) the event(s) took place; (iv) If missing funds, identify source of funds and how much; (v) Identify any evidence or documentation that is available; (vi) Names of credible witnesses; and (vii) Any other information that may be helpful to review the matter.

The information gathered from the call is reported directly to the Integrity Line Committee, which includes the City Auditor, the City Attorney and the Assistant City Manager. The Committee maintains strict standards of confidentiality (to the extent permitted by law), and will not voluntarily release information about an inquiry. The Committee reviews all complaints received and will advise callers on the Committee's findings after their review.

C. Ethics Hotline—Board Member's Conduct

1. Possible Conflicts of Interest or Ethics Issues

If a board member is uncertain about whether a conflict of interest or other ethical problem exists, the board member should first contact the member's board liaison and board chairperson. The City of Phoenix Ethics Hotline is another resource if the member's board liaison is unavailable or unable to answer the board member's question.

2. Board Member's Future Conduct

All ethics information provided to board members through the Ethics Hotline is non-binding, does not constitute legal advice, and intended only to be informational. Ethics counsel will provide information solely related to the inquiring person's own future conduct. The Ethics Hotline does not address professionalism matters, legal issues, or past conduct, nor does it provide an opinion or information about the conduct of anyone other than the inquiring person. Ethics counsel does not provide information via email and cannot convey information through a paralegal or other assistant.

3. Number and Hours of Operation

The Ethics Hotline for board members may be reached at (602) 262-6761, 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m., during regular City business days. To request a call back, please leave a voicemail message with the board member's name, contact telephone number, the best time to reach the member, and the name of the City of Phoenix board, commission, committee, or task force on which the member serves.

4. Ethics Hotline FAQ's

Q. Who answers Ethics Hotline calls?

A. A staff member answers Ethics Hotline calls and provides the caller's inquiry to ethics counsel. Ethics counsel will call the inquiring person within one to two business days, excluding holidays. If the board member's matter is time sensitive, ethics counsel will prioritize the member's call, but cannot guarantee an exact callback time.

Q. May the board member make an anonymous request for information from the Ethics Hotline?

A. No. An inquiring person is required to disclose the person's name and City of Phoenix affiliation when calling the Hotline.

Q. Are calls to the Ethics Hotline confidential?

A. No. Ethics counsel does not and cannot legally represent the board member nor does ethics counsel provide legal advice to the board member. Ethics counsel solely provides information to help inform a board member of City of Phoenix ethics policies and laws.

Q. Will the Ethics Counsel keep a record of the board member's call?

A. Yes. Ethics counsel will create a log of the call, including date and time of the call, a summary of the caller's question, and the information provided. These records are maintained by the City of Phoenix Law Department.

Q. Does the Ethics Hotline issue binding opinions?

A. No. Ethics counsel provides the information for the inquiring person's sole use.

Q. Can the board member's reliance on Ethics Hotline information serve as a defense to a City of Phoenix proceeding?

A. No. The ethics information is made available for the board member's use and consideration, but the board member maintains full responsibility for any of the board member's conduct.

Q. Can the Ethics Hotline provide a written opinion?

A. No. The Ethics Hotline provides telephonic information only. The Ethics Hotline does not provide informal written opinions or information via email.

Section VI: Penalties and Sanctions

A. Under City Laws and Policies

Violations of the law and any of the policies set forth in this Ethics Handbook may expose a board member to a variety of penalties—including removal and civil and criminal penalties, as authorized by law.

Comment: For example, the penalties for a violation of Arizona’s Open Meetings laws include nullification of action taken (Arizona Revised Statutes, Section 38-431.05), removal from office, a civil penalty of up to $500, an assessment of all costs and attorney’s fees incurred in the lawsuit, and such other equitable relief that the court deems appropriate. Arizona Revised Statutes, Section 38-431.07(A).

B. Under State Policies and Laws

Board members must recognize the serious consequences of violating some of the laws set forth in this Ethics Handbook. For example, intentional violation of the conflict of interest laws constitutes a Class 6 felony, which is punishable upon conviction by imprisonment for up to 1 ½ years and/or a fine of up to $150,000. Negligent violation of the law constitutes a Class 1 misdemeanor, which is punishable by imprisonment for up to 6 months and/or a fine of up to $2,000. In addition, a person found guilty of violating the law automatically forfeits their public office.

Ultimate responsibility for complying with the law rests with individual members of public bodies. Therefore, in situations involving potential conflicts of interest, doubts as to the application of the law should be resolved by disqualification rather than by participation.

Appendix A: Applicable Ethics Laws and Policies

Phoenix City Charter Chapter XI, Section 1 (Adopting State Conflict of Interest Laws)

The provisions of the state law governing conflict of interest of officers and employees shall apply.

Phoenix City Code Chapter 2, Article II, Section 2-53 (City of Phoenix Ethics Commission; Ethics or Gift Policy Violations by Elected Officials or Board Members)

A. Definitions. The definitions in Section 2-52(A) apply to this section.

B. City of Phoenix Ethics Commission. The City of Phoenix Ethics Commission is hereby established to consist of five members who each serve a term of five years unless otherwise specified. Two Commission members must be registered members of the Democratic Party, two Commission members must be registered members of the Republican Party, and one Commission member must be registered with no party affiliation. All members must be Phoenix residents and must not be elected officials, precinct committee persons of a political party, or Phoenix employees. A member may not serve more than one full term. One Democratic member, one Republican member, and the unaffiliated member will each serve a full initial term. One Democratic member and one Republican member will each serve a three-year initial term. Each Commission vacancy must be filled by a candidate recommended by the Judicial Selection Advisory Board and approved by Council as provided in this section.

C. Appointment of Commission members. The Judicial Selection Advisory Board will seek out and encourage qualified individuals to apply for appointment to the Ethics Commission and may conduct investigations into the background and qualifications of candidates through the use of questionnaires, personal interviews, and other means as the Board deems reasonable. When making recommendations for appointment to the Commission, the Board should consider the diversity of Phoenix's population. A candidate for appointment to the Commission must be a registered Arizona voter who has been continuously registered with the same political party or registered as unaffiliated with a political party for five or more years preceding the date the candidate files an application with the Board. A candidate for appointment to the Commission must be a Phoenix resident and may not serve as an elected official, a precinct committee person of a political party, or Phoenix employee on the date the candidate files an application with the Board. As provided in Section 2-96, the Board will recommend candidates for appointment to the Commission by the affirmative vote of seven Council members.

D. Ethics Commission compensation. Ethics Commission members will not receive a salary or otherwise be compensated except for reimbursement of parking fees near Phoenix City Hall.

E. Ethics Commission rules and procedures. The City Manager will prepare initial rules and procedures for the Commission's investigation and enforcement of an ethics or gift violation. All violations must be approved by an affirmative vote of four Ethics Commission members and an affirmative vote of seven Council members. These rules and procedures must address the process and procedures for the Ethics Commission to initiate proceedings, conduct the initial evaluation and investigation, proceed with a formal hearing after investigation by the Ethics Commission, if necessary, and recommend action, if necessary, to Council related to an alleged ethics or gift violation. By an affirmative vote of four members, the Ethics Commission may refer changes to the initial Ethics Commission rules and procedures to the City Manager for review and recommendation to Council. Any changes to the initial Ethics Commission rules and procedures must be approved by an affirmative vote of seven Council members.

F. Filing of inquiry. Any person who is a Phoenix resident or who is directly aggrieved by an act or the failure to act of an elected official or board member may file with the City Clerk a written inquiry containing specific allegations of violations of the City's ethics or gift policy by any elected official or board member.

G. Elected official participation. An elected official must not participate in any discussion or vote in an inquiry involving the elected official's acts or failure to act except to respond to the inquiry or defend against any allegation related to the inquiry.

H. Consideration of inquiry. Within five days of receiving the inquiry, the City Clerk will forward the inquiry to the Ethics Commission and the inquiry will be placed on the agenda of the Commission's next available meeting.

I. Initial evaluation by Commission. Each inquiry received by the Commission will be initially evaluated by the Commission to determine by the affirmative vote of four members if the allegations in the inquiry:

1. Are within the Commission's jurisdiction and are facially sufficient in whole or in part to warrant additional evaluation or investigation of the allegations in the inquiry; or
2. Are outside of the Commission's jurisdiction or facially insufficient to warrant investigation and, therefore, dismiss the inquiry. The Commission's dismissal of the inquiry is not subject to review; or
3. May involve a crime, in which case the Commission must refer the inquiry to the proper authority for investigation and prosecution. If the Commission refers the inquiry to another authority for criminal investigation or prosecution, the Commission must stay all action related to the inquiry until the criminal investigation and any related proceedings are resolved; or
4. Are not well grounded in law or fact and are interposed for an improper purpose, such as to harass or cause unnecessary delay or expense to the elected official or board member. The Commission may recommend that the Council impose a civil sanction in the maximum amount of $500 against the person or entity for each frivolous inquiry.

If the Commission fails to make a determination by unanimous or the affirmative vote as required in subsections (1)(1) through (4) of this section, the inquiry is deemed closed.

J. Ethics Commission authority. Upon a determination that an inquiry warrants additional evaluation or investigation, the Ethics Commission is authorized to investigate, take testimony, and engage in any other action to the extent permitted by law to oversee the investigation and enforcement of the ethics or gift policy related to an elected official or board member. The Commission may appoint an independent investigator as may be necessary to assist the Ethics Commission in carrying out its purpose and responsibilities. In addition, the Ethics Commission may issue advisory opinions regarding ethics and gift policy issues upon request by an elected official or board member, and make recommendations to Council.

K. Inquiry report. After the conclusion of any hearing or fact finding related to an inquiry alleging a violation of the City's ethics or gift policy by an elected official or board member, the investigator will prepare a written report with findings of fact and recommendations. The report will be provided to the Ethics Commission for such action as the Ethics Commission deems appropriate. The report will not be available for public inspection under the Arizona Public Records Act until after final action by the Ethics Commission.

L. Commission review. The Ethics Commission may review and discuss the inquiry and the report in executive session as permitted by law. In public session, by the affirmative vote of four members the Ethics Commission may recommend to the full Council to sustain the alleged violations in whole or in part, to impose sanctions, if any, permitted by this section, or to dismiss the inquiry. If there are less than four votes to make a recommendation to the full Council or to dismiss the inquiry, then the inquiry is deemed closed.

M. Consideration of recommendation. A recommendation from the Ethics Commission related to an inquiry will be placed on the agenda of the next available meeting of the full Council. By the affirmative vote of seven members the Council may accept the Ethics Commission recommendation in whole or in part, impose the same or different sanctions, if any, as permitted by this section, or dismiss the inquiry. If there are less than seven votes to accept the Ethics Commission's recommendation in whole or in part, or to dismiss the inquiry, the inquiry is deemed closed.

N. Sanctions. By an affirmative vote of seven members, the Council may impose any of the following actions or civil sanctions for a violation of the ethics or gift policies by an elected official or board member: censure, a maximum civil sanction in the amount of $500 for each violation, or removal from office if the violation relates to a board member. Section 1-5 does not apply to action under this subsection. The penalties and remedies provided in Title 38, Chapter 3, Article 8, Arizona Revised Statutes, may apply and may be enforced as provided by law.

O. Action for frivolous allegations. Upon a finding and recommendation by an affirmative vote of four members of the Ethics Commission and by an affirmative vote of seven members of the City Council, the City Council may direct the City Manager through the City Attorney to file a complaint in Municipal Court against a person, or other entity recognized by law, for the filing of allegations of ethics or gift violations that are not well grounded in law or fact and are interposed for an improper purpose, such as to harass or cause unnecessary delay or expense to the elected official or board member. A person found liable for violating this section by a preponderance of the evidence may be subject to a maximum civil sanction in the amount of $500 for each violation and may be ordered to pay the reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred by the elected official or board member to respond to and defend against the improper allegations.

P. Removal of Commission member. Compliance with this section is not required for the Council to take action under Section 2-51.

Phoenix City Code Chapter 2, Article III, Section 2-96 (Judicial Selection Advisory Board Selection of Ethics Commission Candidates for City Council Approval)

A. There is hereby created a Judicial Selection Advisory Board to be composed of the Chief Presiding Judge of the City Court, who shall serve as a nonvoting member, and nine voting members, consisting of the following:

the Presiding Judge of the Superior Court of Maricopa County or his designee; an appellate court judge to be appointed by the Chief Justice of the Arizona Supreme Court; a member of the Maricopa County Bar Association who shall reside in the City of Phoenix and who shall be appointed by the Mayor from among three nominees recommended by the Association's Board of Directors; an active member of the State Bar of Arizona who shall reside in the City of Phoenix and who shall be appointed by the Mayor from among three nominees recommended by the State Bar's Board of Governors; and five nonattorney public members who are nominated by the Mayor and who are residents of the City of Phoenix. The diversity of the City's population shall be considered when making an appointment to the Board. None of the public members shall be an employee of the City of Phoenix. Voting members shall be subject to approval by the City Council. Voting members shall serve a term of three years and shall be eligible for reappointment for one additional three-year term. The members shall serve without salary or compensation.

B. The Board's officers shall consist of a chairman and vice-chairman, each selected from the Board's voting members. Officers shall serve one-year terms. No member shall serve more than two terms as chairman or two terms as vice-chairman, not including any term filled for the remainder of another member's unexpired term. Upon expiration of the chairman's first term or, if selected for a second term, upon expiration of the chairman's second term, the vice-chairman automatically shall become the chairman. If upon expiration of the chairman's first term, the chairman is selected by the voting members for a second term, the vice-chairman shall automatically continue in that office for a second term. A vacancy in the office of chairman caused other than by the expiration of a term shall be filled by the vice-chairman for the remainder of the unexpired term. The members shall determine operating procedures for the Board, which shall be kept in writing.

The vice-chairman shall preside whenever the chairman is absent or unable to act. The chairman will have the duty to prepare written reports as may be requested by the City Council.

C. The Board shall have the following powers and duties:

2. By an affirmative vote of four out of five members, the Ethics Commission may refer changes to the initial Ethics Commission rules and procedures to the City Manager for review and recommendation to the City Council. Any changes to the initial Ethics Commission rules and procedures must be approved by an affirmative vote of seven Council members.

C. Filing of inquiry. Any person may file with the City Clerk a written inquiry containing specific allegations of violations of this article.

D. Consideration of inquiry.

1. Once the City Clerk receives an inquiry and the City Clerk has reviewed the inquiry and it appears on its face that a person may have violated any provision of this article, the City Clerk must serve notice on the person by certified mail or at the registered e-mail address requiring compliance with this article within 15 days. If the person does not take corrective action by 5:00 p.m. on the fifteenth day, the City Clerk will forward the inquiry to the Ethics Commission for prompt review and action.
2. When the Ethics Commission receives the inquiry, the inquiry must be placed on the agenda of the Commission's next available meeting.

3. When the Ethics Commission is not or cannot be assembled, the City Clerk will forward the inquiry to the City Attorney for prompt review and action.

E. Initial evaluation by Commission. The Commission will evaluate to determine if the allegations in the inquiry:

1. Are within the Commission's jurisdiction and are facially sufficient, in whole or in part, to warrant additional evaluation or investigation of the inquiry; or
2. Are outside of the Commission's jurisdiction or are facially insufficient to warrant investigation. If the allegations are outside the Commission's jurisdiction or are insufficient to warrant investigation, the inquiry will be dismissed. The Commission's dismissal of the inquiry is final and is not subject to review; or
3. May involve a crime, in which case the Commission must refer the inquiry to the proper authority for investigation and possible prosecution. If the Commission refers the inquiry for criminal investigation or prosecution, the Commission must stay all action related to the inquiry until the criminal investigation and any related proceedings are resolved.

A determination under subsection (E)(1) or (2) of this section requires an affirmative vote of at least four out of five members. If the Commission fails to make a determination by the minimum affirmative vote, the inquiry is deemed closed. This disposition is final and not subject to review.

F. Ethics Commission authority.

1. Upon a determination that an inquiry warrants additional evaluation or investigation, the Ethics Commission is authorized to investigate, take testimony, subpoena, and engage in any other action to the extent permitted by law to oversee the investigation and enforcement of the lobbying requirements.

2. The Commission may appoint an independent investigator as necessary to assist the Ethics Commission in executing its purpose and responsibilities.

G. Inquiry report.

1. After the conclusion of any hearing or fact finding related to an alleged violation of the City's lobbying ordinance, the Commission or its investigator will prepare a written report with findings of fact and recommendations.
2. The report will be provided to the Ethics Commission for appropriate action under this article.
3. The report will not be available for public inspection under the Arizona Public Records Act until after the Ethics Commission's final action.

H. Commission review.

1. The Ethics Commission may review and discuss the inquiry and the report in executive session as permitted by law.
2. In public session, by the affirmative vote of four out of five members, the Ethics Commission may sustain the alleged violations in whole or in part and recommend sanctions permitted by this article, or the Commission may dismiss the inquiry. If there are less than four votes to sustain the allegations or to dismiss the inquiry, then the inquiry is deemed closed.

I. Enforcement of a sustained violation.

1. If the Ethics Commission finds any violation and recommends any sanction pursuant to this article, the information must be forwarded to the City Attorney to file a complaint.
2. Any inquiry reports, findings of fact, and hearing transcripts must be transmitted to the City Attorney to file a complaint if the Ethics Commission has found any violation and recommended any sanction.
3. When a complaint has been filed, the Court may conduct a hearing on the merits. If the Court sustains any violation, the Court must sentence the person according to Section 2-1005.

Phoenix City Code
Section 2-1005.02, Severability.

To this extent, the provisions of this article are declared severable.

Arizona Revised Statutes Title 9, Section 9-500.14, (Use of City Resources to Influence Elections; Prohibition)

A. A city or town shall not spend or use its resources, including the use or expenditure of monies, accounts, credit, facilities, vehicles, postage, telecommunications, computer hardware and software, web pages, personnel, equipment, materials, buildings or any other thing of value of the city or town, for the purpose of influencing the outcomes of elections. Notwithstanding this Section, a city or town may distribute informational pamphlets on a proposed bond election as provided in Section 35-454 if those informational pamphlets present factual information in a neutral manner. Nothing in this Section precludes a city or town from reporting on official actions of the governing body.

B. The prohibition on the use of public resources to influence the outcome of bond, budget override and other tax-related elections includes the use of city-focused or town-focused promotional expenditures that occur after an election is called and through election day. This prohibition does not include routine city or town communications.

C. This Section does not prohibit the use of city or town resources, including facilities and equipment, for government-sponsored forums or debates if the government sponsor remains impartial and the events are purely informational and provide an equal opportunity to all viewpoints. The rental and use of a public facility by a private person or entity that may lawfully attempt to influence the outcome of an election is permitted if it does not occur at the same time and place as a government-sponsored forum or debate.

D. Employees of a city or town shall not use the authority of their positions to influence the vote or political activities of any subordinate employee.

E. The attorney general or the county attorney of the county in which an alleged violation of this section occurred may initiate a suit in the superior court in the county in which the city or town is located for the purpose of complying with this section.

F. For each violation of this section, the court may impose a civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars plus any amount of misused funds subtracted from the city or town budget against a person who knowingly violates or aids another person in violating this section. The person determined to be out of compliance with this section is responsible for the payment of all penalties and misused funds. City or town funds or insurance payments shall not be used to pay these penalties or misused funds. All misused funds collected pursuant to this section shall be returned to the city or town whose funds were misused.

G. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as denying the civil and political liberties of any employee as guaranteed by the United States and Arizona Constitutions.

H. For the purposes of this section:

1. "Government-sponsored forum or debate" means any event, or part of an event or meeting, in which the government is an official sponsor, which is open to the public or to invited members of the public, and whose purpose is to inform the public about an issue or proposition that is before the voters.
2. "Influencing the outcomes of elections" means supporting or opposing a candidate for nomination or election to public office or the recall of a public officer or supporting or opposing a ballot measure, question or proposition, including any bond, budget or override election and supporting or opposing the circulation of a petition for the recall of a public officer or a petition for a ballot measure, question or proposition in any manner that is not impartial or neutral.
3. "Misused funds" means city or town monies or resources used unlawfully as proscribed by this section.
4. "Routine city or town communications" means messages or advertisements that are germane to the functions of the city or town and that maintain the frequency, scope and distribution consistent with past practices or are necessary for public safety.

H. A person who is convicted of a violation of subsection A, paragraph 1 or 3 of this section that involved property with a value of one hundred thousand dollars or more is not eligible for suspension of sentence, probation, pardon or release from confinement on any basis except pursuant to section 31-233, subsection A or B until the sentence imposed by the court has been served, the person is eligible for release pursuant to section 41-1604.07 or the sentence is commuted.

28, Chapter 10 or by a scrap metal dealer as defined in section 44-1641, proof of possession of scrap metal that was recently stolen may give rise to an inference that the person in possession of the scrap metal was aware of the risk that it had been stolen or in some way participated in its theft.
